WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4. Ir it reported that Absong, the Chinese colporteur, has recently died in China, leaving a Hawaiian wife and four or five children, While we are providing free passages for immigranta from that part of the world, would it not be wise to instruct our Consul at Hongkong to extend the same privilege to this woman and her children, who doubtless desire to return. There are in almost every port and country bordering on this ocean, Hawaiians who have strayed away as seamen or servants, who would gladly return to their native shore, were any means provided. A statement was recently published in one of the native newspapers that there are now one hundred and fifty Hawaiians living in Washington Territory, some of whom desire to return here. Let instructions be issued to our Consuls to encourage the return of any such Hawaiians, and to communicate the fact to the authorities here, if they learn that there are such, that ways and means may be pro-

PHIADRIPHIA, Aug. 15, 1876.

DEAR GAIRITH,—Taking an excursion ticket for fifteen days, we come to this city, centre of attraction for the whole world, (a week ago), and truly I have lived fast in this week. Approaching the city, Centennial signs and advertisements multiplied on and the other a darling was baby of one hundred or more years ago, and the other a darling was baby of the present and the contential signs and advertisements multiplied on and the other a darling wax baby of the present generation. Old writings lie on the stand in the centre of the room, and the fire place represents the veritable old days; an old crane from which depends pots and kettles which have sent in,-heir from kitchens of former generations.
